lots of trouble and pain through life, And ever am in hot water and strife! My first a ba-by in nurse's arms, I went to meeting and caused alarm, The next at seven, I went to school, To study to read and write by rule, I nose has got such a queer disease, I'm al-most dying for having to sneeze! And people were roused from slum'bring ease, By hearing that pesky . . . Infant . . . sneeze! And saw the children as thick as bees, But they scamper'd away when they heard me sneeze! And thus in trouble my life began, And now I am known as the sneez-ing man.

next my frolicking days came round, A beautiful dam-sel soon I found, But wish" cried I to my an-gel dear, "To tell of my love while kneel-ing here!" But dam-sel screamed and fell to the floor, In ag-o-ny wild her hair she tore! When as the maiden was just the cheese, She fainted away when she heard me sneeze! And tho' I was there on my bend-ed knees, It couldn't be done, for I had to sneeze! And turning I went like an au-tumn breeze Ske-dad-dling off with an-oth-er sneeze. And thus in trouble my life be-gan, And now I am known as the sneezing man.
